ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES:

You may want to experience some traditional Thai culture before or after the conference. The Thai cultural village has daily performances showcasing folk dances and martial arts at 10am and 2.30pm.

Located in the grounds of the hotel, you may also want to take the opportunity to visit the Cultural Village area, open between 10am and 4pm daily.

Here, you will see local Thai villagers creating traditional village handicrafts in their natural environment. All sorts of skills are on display including; silk-weaving, pottery-making, umbrella-painting, Khon mask making, mat weaving, doll making, fruit carving, garland-making, rice-pounding and even the delicate crafting of silver and laquerware.

There are also impressive displays of authentic Thai period costumes, a chance to see busy, typical Thai market, different styles of Thai Houses (from both the North to South regions of Thailand) and an intriguing display of Thai antiques from various parts of the country.

The Thai village offers a real potpourri of different Thai cultural activities that also include Muay Thai boxing, sword fighting, Thai dances and elephants at work.

Tickets are available from the hotel or can be pre purchased with your registration.
